ACCOMAC COURT-HOUSE, VA.
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1885.

Entered at the Postoffice at Accomac, C. H., Va., as second-class matter.

Virginia is redeemed! From the bondage to which a little petty boss would subject her she is forever free. The same glad tidings reach us from every part of our Commonwealth of the triumph of the Democratic party. The news is indeed glorious. Gen. Fitz Lee is elected by a tremendous majority and both branches of our Legislature are largely Democratic. The Mahoneites, in fact, have not only been beaten—they have been routed.—The election returns show Democratic gains from every part of the State and sound the death knell of the Outcast too forcibly to be mistaken by one even, so steeped in iniquity and sin as he is. One thing only remains to make our victory complete—to rid ourselves as speedily as possible of the gang elevated to positions of profit and trust by him, who have only stood in wait to do his bidding.

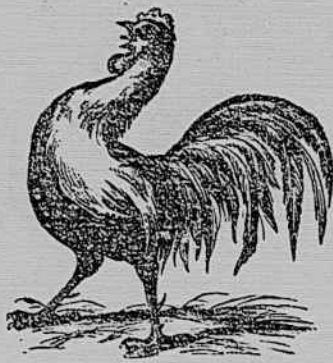

"Turn the rascals out!" should be the patriotic utterance of every true Virginian. Mahone, of course will be asked to "step down and out" from the position which he has so much disgraced. Virginia is again indeed free. Is there any true Virginian who does not rejoice?

Maryland too has covered herself with glory. Assailed by foes without and foes within her borders, she came to the front with the largest Democratic vote ever given in the State, since the right of suffrage was given to the colored people, and thereby rebukes the soreheads and deadbeats of their party in a manner too plain to be mistaken. Elsewhere throughout the Union also, the returns show large accessions to the Democratic party.—The tidings which come to us from New Jersey, Iowa and Colorado foretell Democratic victories in those States at no distant day. A Democratic tidal wave, in fact, seems to be sweeping the country. The waving of the old bloody shirt by Sherman, Foraker and Mahone, thanks to the good sense of the American people could not stop its progress. Our victory indeed proclaims that sectionalism is not dying but dead, and the bloody shirt seems to have been furled in ignominy forever.

If the Democrats had lost everything else in the elections in other States, the overthrow of Mahoneism and the triumph of Gen. Lee would have furnished sufficient cause for rejoicing to the Democrats throughout the country. The decisive victory in Virginia sounding as it does, the death knell of the vilest political trickster who ever disgraced any land and consigning as it does to an eternal death the damnable schemes with which he would have afflicted Virginia if he had continued in power, cannot but cause every honorable man, whatever his party affiliations to be filled with exultation with gratitude and with joy. But grand as was the result in Virginia our cause for joy is not circumscribed by the victories within the limits of our State. No, New York, too, has gone Democratic by an increased vote over last year and may therefore reasonably count as a Democratic State in the future.—New York and Virginia, both Democratic, make certain the perpetuation of a national Democratic administration. With results so grand at the present and prospects so bright for the future the Democratic heart would be stone, that would not be filled with praise and thanksgiving.

Chincoteague's Republican postmaster was removed by the "reform administration" for the sole reason that he was an "offensive partisan;" and in less than 60 days after the appointment of the "reform" postmaster the postoffice was monopolized by the Democratic party as a hall for a political meeting. The Hon. Thos. Croxton, a trade member of Congress for this district, delivered a political address Saturday night in the postoffice.—Wilmington Morning News, Oct. 27th.

The "offensive partisan" to which reference is made, is we presume the author of the above and it does not require a very careful reading of the article in question to see that the writer is too much blinded by prejudice to do his successor justice. The political meeting referred to was not held at Mr. Wheaton's store because he was a Democrat or postmaster or for any other reason than that it could accommodate better the large audience assembled to hear Mr. Croxton. If any blame attaches to any one because of the political meeting being held there the editor of this paper is alone at fault—the postmaster having loaned it to him at his request, only in a spirit of courtesy. No postmaster whether Democrat or Republican we presume would refuse a similar request made of them. The storehouse and postoffice of Mr. Wheaton too, are by no means one and the same.—"The one is a public place open for the reception of everyone—the other though under the same roof is entirely private and open only to those who manage its business.—Being "out in the cold" evidently is not agreeable to our friend, else he would not have made the people attacks upon Mr. Croxton he has nor would he have been willing to furnish a Republican paper that never fails to vilify and abuse Virginia whenever the opportunity offers, material for that purpose.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY!
LEE'S MAJORITY 20,000!

Large Democratic Majority on Joint Ballot!

The Outcast Buried Forever!

New York Democratic!

Republicans Routed in Maryland!

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 4.—All but eleven counties in the State have been heard from, but it is impossible to give to-night the total vote for Governor, as most of the returns only give majorities. From what has been received, and estimating the counties not heard from, Lee's majority will doubtless reach 20,000. The Democratic gains, as far as reported, are nearly offset by Republican gains. In the southwestern counties the Democrats made small gains. Heavy Democratic gains, however, appear in all the counties having a large colored population. The Legislature, so far as known, stands: House—69 Democrats, 20 Republicans; 11 not heard from, but nearly all will return Republicans. Senate—30 Democrats, 9 Republicans; 1 not heard from (probably Republican).—Phila. Record.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 4.—Later returns received today and tonight from the election of yesterday bear out the indications of an overwhelming defeat of Mahone given in these dispatches last night. The complexion of the Legislature will be: Senate, Democrats 30, or three more than two-thirds; House of Delegates, 69, or two more than two-thirds. The Democrats may increase on these figures from few counties not yet fully reported.

At midnight indications are that Lee's majority will be over 20,000. Many of Mahone's colored strongholds in the black districts give decisive Democratic majorities. Some of these have been carried by Mahone in every contest since 1879. Notably among these is Louisa, the home of Mr. W. C. Elam, the editor of the Richmond Whig, Mahone's organ. That county has never failed to return a Mahone member of the Legislature, and was last year carried by Blaine by 250 majority. An analysis of the returns indicates that Mahone maintained pretty well the vote given Blaine last year in most of the counties of the white sections of the Southwest and Valley. His heaviest losses were in the black counties.

The Democrats carried every colored county secured by them in the contest for the Legislature in 1883, when Mahone declared that the colored voters had been overawed by the effect of the Danville riot. In addition to the negro counties that gave Democratic majorities in that fight that party yesterday elected members of the Legislature in Caroline, Prince Edward, Gloucester, King William, Cumberland, and very probably in Buckingham. The Democrats elected 14 members of the House of Delegates from counties which give decisive colored majorities, beside one or two Senators, by the aid given them by voters of the same race. The assistance of these voters goes far towards furnishing much of the majority secured by the Democrats in the lower branch of the Legislature. It is believed by many that this element of the strength of the Republicans in this State will in the future cut loose from that party, in State affairs at least. The Democrats made good gains yesterday in the white sections of the Piedmont and eighth congressional districts.—Baltimore Sun.

The returns show that the negroes in the black belt broke away from Mahone, and many of them supported the Democratic candidates.

The Democrats carry Halifax, Charlotte, Fluvanna, King William King and Queen, Southampton and Isle of Wight, all colored counties. In Powhatan and several other counties the colored majority was greatly reduced.

Gloucester, which last year gave Blaine 100, goes for the Democratic candidate for the House by 8 majority.

The Democrats made a splendid gain in Petersburg and they are proud of it. Think of it! A Democratic gain of 629 votes at the home of Senator Mahone, under the very nose of the boss.

Louisa county, the home of W. C. Elam, editor of the Richmond Whig, elects a Democrat to the House by 26 majority. The Democratic Senator from that district is elected by a majority.

Shenandoah, the home of Riddellberger, also repudiates the "lame cock of the Valley."

MARYLAND.
BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 4.—The Democratic majorities in this city range from 10,000 to 19,000, the highest being for State Comptroller and the lowest for Sheriff. Frederick county, the Republican stronghold of the State, is conceded to have elected the entire Democratic ticket, as has also Anne Arundel, which was thought doubtful.

Sufficient returns have been received to indicate that the majority for the Democratic State ticket will be nearly 30,000. The Legislature will be about: Senate—Republicans, 6; Democrats, 20. House of Delegates—Republicans, 16; Democrats, 101. Democratic majority on joint ballot, 90, assuring a Democratic successor to Senator Gorman, whose term will expire on the 4th of March, 1887.

The Democratic majority in this State is the largest since Gov. Bowie's election, which was prior to the extension of the right of suffrage to the colored people.

NEW YORK.
Gov. Hill's majority in the entire State of New York is estimated at about 12,000. Tammany Hall elected not only its candidate for sheriff, but the president of the board of aldermen and the county clerk. The State Legislature will be Republican—the Senate by a majority of from 6 to 10 and the Assembly by a majority of 28. This is the only dark cloud over the Democratic victory.

MAHONE'S WILL.
The result of the election in Virginia last Tuesday elicits the following from the Outcast:

"The Democrats have carried the State and Legislative ticket by the unscrupulous use of the election machinery, over which they have absolute control, and which was provided by their last usurping Legislature expressly with this end in view."

In reply to an inquiry from the mayor of Lancaster, Ohio, and other Northern friends, Gen. Mahone has sent the following telegram to H. C. Drukle, mayor of Lancaster, Ohio: "I am grateful for the concern felt for our struggle here for Republican principles, honest methods, human rights and American unity. It is with sincere appreciation for the safety of Republican government, the peace of the nation and the welfare of the country that I realize that the Democrats have carried the State and Legislative tickets, only, however, by lawless proceedings and an unscrupulous use of the election machinery, all in their hands and under their absolute control, as provided, and to this very end, by the late usurping Democratic Legislature."

(Signed.) "MAHONE."

President Cleveland and the Election.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—President Cleveland returned to Washington at 10:50 this morning. He left Buffalo at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and came through direct in the special car in which he left here on Monday morning. He came alone and was met at the depot by Colonel Lamont. The President expressed himself as being much gratified with the result of the election in New York, and telegraphed congratulations to Governor Hill soon after reaching the White House.

The President to day received a large number of telegrams from prominent Democratic politicians in all parts of the country, but principally in New York, congratulating him on the result of the election in New York as an unmistakable endorsement of his administration.

VALUABLE SCHOONERS FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.
These schooners NEPTUNE and GEO. P. KEAGLE will be sold on Saturday, November 14th, next, at 11 o'clock a.m. on the wharf at Onancock, Accomac county, Va., at public auction by the undersigned:
1.—The schooner NEPTUNE, 44.90 tons, net 42.66 tons, belonging to the estates of John M. Fosse and John T. Rogers.
2.—The schooner GEO. P. KEAGLE 44.90 tons, net 42.66 tons belonging to the estate of John M. Fosse and to Benjamin F. Crockett.
Along with these schooners will be sold their anchors, cables and boats. They are in excellent condition, fast sailers and in every way first-class, and are too well known to persons trading on the Chesapeake bay to require any special recommendation.
Terms of Sale.
Five per centum of the purchase money will be required in cash, and such more will be received as the purchasers may desire to pay; so much as is not paid in cash will be divided into two equal installments made payable in four and ten months, bearing interest from the day of sale. The purchasers will be required to give bond with satisfactory personal security for each of the deferred installments, and the schooners will be delivered as soon as the terms of same are complied with. Both of these schooners are engaged in the potato trade and can be seen on their regular trips either in Baltimore or at Onancock.
